If you are caught after the first class of the day, you will be assessed ISS. JUST A REMINDER THAT YOUR ID MUST BE WORN AT ALL TIMES.

Congratulations! To our Music Department for an outstanding performance at the Aloha Concert this past Friday. We are proud of you! I mua Lahainaluna!

A HUGE thank you to a few more people for Thursday night's National Honor Society Induction-To our cafeteria manager Mr. Ray Camacho, and to Mr. Al Souza for ensuring that there was a space to use, as well as cake and punch. Thank you to the Boarders and their counselors, Ms Sandy Camargo and Mr. Sy Feliciano for their graciousness when we interrupted their dinner to set up the cafeteria for the ceremony. Thank you to Mr. Jon Shigaki for ensuring that the new Inductees were recognized the morning after induction instead of today, setting up the microphones and being the last person out of the cafe, and deepest gratitude to Mrs. Joanne Dennis for her very real assistance and support- not least as a master cake cutter!
Finally, thank you to all of the 2015-2016 NHS members who worked to ensure a successful induction ceremony.

For seniors who received scholarships, you must give Miss Kristy your thank you letters by Today Monday, May 16. You may handwrite or type your thank you letters but, it must be in an envelope addressed to your scholarship with a postage stamp on it. If you haven't returned your Thank You Letter Contract please do so immediately
