This week (September 25th - October 1st) is the American Library Association Office of Intellectual Freedom's Banned Books Week. This annual event celebrates our right to read, seek information, and express our ideas. Some popular titles that have been challenged or banned in the last year are Stephen Chbosky's The Perks of Being a Wallflower, Gayle Forman's Just One Day and Mark Haddon's The Curious Incident of Dog in the Night-time, just to name a few. So what can you do? Read a banned or challenged book to celebrate your right to read, and visit the library to take a photo at our Banned Books Week photo booth. Don't forget to tag your photos #bannedbooksweek2016.

Uniforms! To all students who prepaid for their school uniforms, you may come down to Mr. Wise's class at Hale Mana'o AA2 during morning recess and lunch period only. Do not come when class is in session. Mahalo!
