Feeling creative? The Lahainaluna PTSA is pleased to announce that Lahainaluna students will once again have an opportunity to participate in National PTA's Reflections Art Program. Students may submit creative works in up to six art categories: Visual Arts, Photography, Literature, Music Composition, Dance Choreography, and Film Production. Entries must be inspired by this year's theme of "What is your story?".

All students must follow the general participation rules, as well as rules for each arts category. These rules, as well as student entry forms in the school library, or you can email lahainalunaptsa@gmail.com and request a set of rules. The deadline to submit entries is Wednesday, November 23rd.

This week (September 25th - October 1st) is the American Library Association Office of Intellectual Freedom's Banned Books Week. This annual event celebrates our right to read, seek information, and express our ideas. Some popular titles that have been challenged or banned in the last year are Stephen Chbosky's The Perks of Being a Wallflower, Gayle Forman's Just One Day and Mark Haddon's The Curious Incident of Dog in the Night-time, just to name a few. So what can you do? Read a banned or challenged book to celebrate your right to read, and visit the library to take a photo at our Banned Books Week photo booth. Don't forget to tag your photos #bannedbooksweek2016.
