Yearbook orders: Attention all students. All those who are planning on purchasing a school yearbook are encouraged to do so before the end of the quarter to ensure they pay the lowest price. Prices of the yearbook will be rising after October 7th, so why stall and pay more for the same product. All yearbook purchases are done online at www.yearbookordercenter.com. Our school code is 10945. There you can purchase not only the yearbook but accessories such as protective covers, autograph inserts, and custom name stamping on your yearbook cover. Please refer to any of the flyers that were passed out or mailed home for any information or you may ask Mrs. Carlos in the SAC Room if you have any questions. Again the last day before yearbook prices go up is October 7th, the last day of 1st quarter, so why wait and pay more.

This week (September 25th - October 1st) is the American Library Association Office of Intellectual Freedom's Banned Books Week. This annual event celebrates our right to read, seek information, and express our ideas. Some popular titles that have been challenged or banned in the last year are Stephen Chbosky's The Perks of Being a Wallflower, Gayle Forman's Just One Day and Mark Haddon's The Curious Incident of Dog in the Night-time, just to name a few. So what can you do? Read a banned or challenged book to celebrate your right to read, and visit the library to take a photo at our Banned Books Week photo booth. Don't forget to tag your photos #bannedbooksweek2016.
