The yearbooks are in! The yearbooks are in! If you have preordered this year's yearbook online, head on up to the library during lunch today to pick them up. This is only for those who have purchased a yearbook for themselves online. We are not selling any extras at the moment. If we do have extra copies, a morning announcement will be broadcasted stating so.

To pick up your school yearbook, please make sure you have your school ID card ready to show.

Attention all current juniors: The school year is almost over and that means that you must start thinking ahead to your senior year. That means senior portraits need to be done soon. All juniors must fill out an important paper that can either be obtained from your social studies teacher or through the SAC office. This form must be filled out completely and turned into Mrs. Carlos in the SAC office ASAP and no later than Wednesday, May 3. Once you complete the form and turn it in to Mrs. Carlos, you will also need to sign up for appointments to take your senior portraits. Again, the last day to turn in the forms and sign up for an appointment to take your senior portrait is Wednesday, May 3rd. If you have any questions, please come down to the SAC office.

Seniors!
During the 4th quarter of the student's senior year, the student must not be found to have committed one Chapter 19 Class A or B offense and 2 Chapter 19 Class C or D offenses. Note: Tardy is Class D offense) All accumulated detention hours must be cleared by 4:00pm on May 17th 2017.

Hey Lunas!
You are all invited to attend the first Lahainaluna Film Festival on May 12, starting from 7pm to 9pm. It will showcase a film of genres such as comedy, action, & hype videos. A three-course meal will be included as well during the event. You can now purchase pre-ordered tickets at Da Store for $12. Don't miss it! See you there!"

Ms. Mekdeci's Art Classes have many outstanding and creative artworks on display in the Library now until May 20th. Please stop by to see the wonderful art our Luna's have created. Congratulate them on their Great Job.

Save the Date! The Lahainaluna High School Music Performing Arts will be having their ALOHA Concert on Sunday, May 7th 6pm at our gym. The admission is free so please attend. We will be having performances from our band, choir, Jazz band, winter guard, and woodwind ensemble. The ensemble is comprised with alumni, our woodwind students, and students from Lahaina Intermediate. Come and bid Aloha to our class of 2017 seniors. It's a night you'll never forget.

Attention Class of 2017! Only a few more weeks until your BIG day. It's not too late to sign up for Project Grad. Custom designed Class of 2017 Project Grad t-shirts are about to be ordered. To make sure you get your shirt and other Project Grad swag, sign up now. The cost is only $50 through April 30th. After that, space is based on availability and the price increases to $75.

Make sure you sign up for this once in a lifetime party. Project Grad forms are available for pick up in the school office.

Hey students 16 and older! Are you looking for an after school job? Bubba Gump's is looking for students to hire as host and servers to start immediately. If you are 16 or older and are interested, please head down to Front Street location for an application. Interviews are many times done on the spot, so remember to dress appropriately and come prepared.

COUNSELORS CORNER:

Seniors who have applied to college should have a financial aid package from all the colleges they have been accepted. Seniors, check your account on the college's website, if you do not have a financial aid package, you must see Miss Kristy immediately, this may mean more information is needed from you. Please set up a meeting with Miss Kristy immediately or your financial aid award may be delayed.

Hey seniors! If you received any community scholarships you must let Miss Kristy know and she will invite you to the Scholarship Awards Program on May 10th. Also, if you received any college scholarships, Miss Kristy must report that information to the Department of Education and post it on the graduation program. It's not too late to apply to community scholarships, there are new scholarships posted almost every week, keep checking My Future Hawaii.

Hey seniors! If there is anyone left who has not completed their FAFSA (financial aid) application, the UHMC advisor will be back in the College & Career Center to help you apply for your financial aid. You must see Miss Kristy immediately to sign up for an appointment.

Those seniors who have already completed their FAFSA and received an email saying that you are marked for verification should also schedule an appointment with the UHMC advisor. There are documents you must provide to the college that marked you for verification, if you do not submit the information you will not receive your financial aid package. Questions? See Miss Kristy.
