Congratulations to Class of 2018 in your senior project presentations this past Friday. Just a reminder that there are still things that needs to be done like completing scholarships, passing your classes, completing after school classes if you have any, clearing detention and withholds, and fulfilling your senior contract. Keep your focus in the next 5 months and clear your obligations. Mahalo!

Speaking of senior contracts, Attention class of 2018 seniors!
Mandatory Senior Contract meeting for Seniors and their parents/ guardians on Wednesday February 21st at 6 pm in Hale Pa'ina Cafeteria or on Sunday February 25th at 3:00 pm. If you have any questions please see Mr. Rogat. Mahalo!

Congratulations to these Lahainaluna Band students on being selected to represent Lahainaluna High School in this year's Maui District High School Band Association's HONOR BAND.

The Honor Band consists of outstanding band students from Baldwin, King Kekaulike, Lahainaluna, Lanai, and Maui High that are able to meet the criteria for admittance. They will be rehearsing at various schools around the island in preparation for the Maui District Band Festival on May 3 and 5 at Maui High. This year's guest conductor for the Honor Band is Mr. Wayne Kawakami of Kamehameha Schools Big Island.

Congratulations students!!

Lahainaluna Football is having a Kalua Pig Sale on Saturday, February 3rd. Tickets are available at the main office for $8. Thanks for supporting LHS Football.

Lahaina Arts Association is pleased to announce the 40th Annual High School Senior Art Competition, Exhibition and Scholarship Awards Program, this coming April. This program gives graduating high school art students an opportunity to exhibit their artwork and attain partial scholarships to assist with funding their post-secondary art education. In honor of 40 years of supporting young artists, this year we are increasing our scholarship awards, in hopes of making a greater impact on the winning artists.

We hope to have participation by students at your school. The information and forms are also available for download on our website at www.lahaina-arts.org. Or you can contact Erin Brothers, Executive Director, at erin@lahaina-arts.org
