Calling all students who love reading a writing. Mrs. Nakata will be taking 28 students to Maui Celebrates Reading on Friday, November 2nd. During this event, you will meet other students from around Maui who share your passion. You will also get a chance to sit in on mini workshops with authors who will share inspirational stories and activities with you. This year's featured speaker is Chris McKinney, author of The Tattoo and Boi No Good. See Mrs. Nakata in the library for a permission form. The first 28 students to submit completed permission forms will attend.

All seniors planning on attending college should be completing the FAFSA.

The FAFSA is an application for federal financial aid, even if the student doesn't receive any aid from the federal government, they may still qualify for academic scholarships and grants from their colleges. Also, the majority of local scholarships require the FAFSA to be completed and sent with their scholarship application. To schedule a FAFSA appointment please email Miss Kristy at: kristy_arakawa@lahaina.k12.hi.us. Don't wait till the last minute. If you snooze, you'll lose.

PTSA REFLECTIONS ANNOUNCEMENT:

Feeling creative? The Lahainaluna PTSA is pleased to announce that Lahainaluna students will once again have an opportunity to participate in National PTA's Reflections Art Program. Students may submit creative works in up to six art categories: Visual Arts, Photography, Literature, Music Composition, Dance

Choreography, and Film Production. Entries must be inspired by this year's theme of "Heroes Around Me".

All students must follow the general participation rules and complete a student entry form. These forms can be found at www.LahainalunaPTSA.org, in the school library, or you can email lahainalunaptsa@gmail.com to request them. The deadline to submit entries is Wednesday, November 21st.

Are you interested in a career in the culinary arts? Gerard's Restaurant is a fine dining restaurant in Lahaina that is consistently one of the top rated restaurants on Maui and they will have a pantry job available soon. If you are interested, please contact Genevieve at 661-8939, or email gerard@maui.net for more information.

NSO partnered with the Hui Noe'au Visual Arts Center to launch an art contest for engaging the community in thinking about their relationship with the Sun. It's open to, and there are prizes for all ages! Grand prize is $500. Additionally, there are two identical sets of prizes that will be awarded to each of two groups: Nationwide and Maui County. In other words, there will be nationwide winners, and winners specifically from Maui County. This is to celebrate Maui as the center of solar astronomy, much like how the Big Island is the center of night astronomy. For more information, please check our website or official Facebook page for more information.

CLUB CHATTER:

Japanese Club/Anime Club: Permission forms for this Friday's Halloween Party are due on Thursday. They can be returned to Mr. Esselburn or Mr. Shigaki. Costumes are optional. Officers arrive on Friday at 5:00 PM to set up. Everyone else by 6:00 PM. We will have a costume contest with prizes followed by the movie Sadako vs Kayako. See everyone there!

Japanese club: Japanese Club t-shirts are in. If you ordered one, please pick one up in K-12.

Anime club: Students going to Kawaii Kon, just a reminder that your first payment is due this Friday, October 26th during morning recess or lunch at Boarders Field. As mentioned above, permission forms for the October 26th Halloween Party are available in K-11 during morning recess or lunch only. Don't forget to pay for your $15 T-shirts and/or $5 dues soon.
