Congratulations to sensei Esselburn and our Japanese club as they participated in the 24th Annual Honolulu Festival Parade. Prior to the parade, Lahainaluna was awarded the Festival's Ohana Award by festival sponsor, Japan Travel Bureau's President & CEO Tsukasa Harafuku, for participating for an amazing 13th time in the last 15 years. During the parade, students volunteered to play Taiko drums inside the Honolulu Daijyama, which is the highlight of the four hour parade. Congratulations again! I mua Lahainaluna!

Come and support our Music Department as they will be having their annual Spring Concert on Tuesday, March 27th 7:00pm at the Maui Arts and Cultural Center Castle Theater. Admission and parking is free! You will enjoy performances from our Jazz Band, Concert Choir, and Concert Band! Come down and enjoy!

Good luck to our FFA students as they will be traveling to Hilo on Hawaii Island to participate in their 2018 State FFA (Future Farmers of America) State Conference from March 27-30th. They will be participating in leadership workshops, competing in state level CDEs (Career Development/Skills Event). They will also be participating in a community service activity at the Panaewa Rainforest Zoo, visiting schools, Hawaii Volcanoes National Park, and visiting local farms/plant nurseries during this trip. Teachers, please refer to Mr. Ideoka's email for the name of the students going to this competition. I mua Lahainaluna!

ALOHA JUNIORS! Still interested in attending prom? We are extending the deadline to March 29. Payment will not be taken the remainder of this week but you will have an opportunity to pay when you return from Spring Break. Payment will be accepted at lunch in P8 on March 27, 28, and 29. This will be your final opportunity to attend prom! Please be sure to work off detention hours and clear withhold obligations so that you may submit payment by then.

ALL JUNIOR PROM ATTENDEES - Keep in mind that even though you have paid, you are still obligated to work off all detention hours by THURSDAY, APRIL 12. Be sure not to add to your number and work your remaining hours off. DO NOT wait until the last minute. If you are not at 0 hours by then, you will be advised that you will not be able to attend and a refund will NOT be given.

Attention boys attending Jr. Prom....did you think about what tux you will be wearing? We are working again with Maui Tuxedos to help make getting a tux easy for you. Tuxedo measurements will be done in

Ms. Abad's room this week during lunch. Just come on in, get measured! Measurements are sent directly from Ms. Abad to the vendor. All of you have to do is go online to choose and pay for your tux rental. You can go online to Mautuxedosonline.com to see your options for a tux. Tuxes will be dropped off to LHS in P8 the week before prom for you to pick up and will need to be returned by you the Monday after prom. No need to go to the other side, everything is done here! Boys, come on in and get measured!"

Congratulations to the Lahainaluna Robotics Team 3882 for placing 2nd out of 66 teams at the FIRST San Diego (Del Mar) Regionals this past weekend. In addition to placing second by reaching the finals, they also qualified for the World Championships and received the Judges' Award. (The judges' award is given when the judging panel may decide that a team's unique efforts, performance, or dynamics merit recognition.)Congratulations to the Lunas Robotics team!

Senior Ball table sign-ups have been postponed until the first week of April. An announcement will be sent out in Po'okela and morning broadcast detailing when you can sign up for table placement's.

Hoe Hapai Imua! Like paddle? Napili Canoe club will have registration on Saturday, March 24th from 9am to 11am at Hanakao'o beach or otherwise known as canoe beach. Once again, registration is on March 24th from 9am to 11am. Mahalo!
