C-SPAN, the Washington, D.C.-based public affairs network, in coordination with Spectrum, is heading to Hawai'i August 15-25 as the next leg of the network's 14-month 50 Capitals Tour. On Thursday, Aug. 23, the bus will visit Lahainaluna High School in the morning, and hold a mid-day event with the Kiwanis Club of Maui. Please say hello and give them a warm welcome if you see them around.

The C-SPAN Bus is an interactive, multimedia mobile classroom that travels the country to engage with community members and elected officials, showcasing C-SPAN's public affairs programming and resources. The all new, state-of-the-art customized motor coach stops at book festivals, high schools and universities to host students and teachers around the nation, giving them an inside look at C-SPAN's comprehensive educational and political resources. To launch the new Bus, C-SPAN, in partnership with its cable and satellite affiliates, kicked off a "50 Capitals Tour" last September, heading to every U.S. state capital, culminating in November 2018 in time for the 25th anniversary of C-SPAN's Bus program. Our visit to Hawaii will be the 39th capital on the tour.

CLUB CHATTER:

Anime Club: Come and sign up for anime club during club fair today at lunch period. The club is open to anyone who loves anime or gaming. Be sure to pick up a permission form for this Friday's anime night at the music building from 3pm to 9pm. You'll love it! Come and join!

SPORTS SHORTS:

Aloha Lahainaluna students, anyone interested in participating in the Lahainaluna Judo club, there will be an informative meeting on August 24th at lunch recess in Uncle Jeremy's classroom, the woodshop. This meeting is to find out how many students are interested in participating in judo and potentially having a Judo team as an MIL sport. Mahalo!
