C-SPAN, the Washington, D.C.-based public affairs network, in coordination with Spectrum, is heading to Hawai'i August 15-25 as the next leg of the network's 14-month 50 Capitals Tour. On Thursday, Aug. 23, the bus will visit Lahainaluna High School in the morning, and hold a mid-day event with the Kiwanis Club of Maui. Please say hello and give them a warm welcome if you see them around.

The C-SPAN Bus is an interactive, multimedia mobile classroom that travels the country to engage with community members and elected officials, showcasing C-SPAN's public affairs programming and resources. The all new, state-of-the-art customized motor coach stops at book festivals, high schools and universities to host students and teachers around the nation, giving them an inside look at C-SPAN's comprehensive educational and political resources. To launch the new Bus, C-SPAN, in partnership with its cable and satellite affiliates, kicked off a "50 Capitals Tour" last September, heading to every U.S. state capital, culminating in November 2018 in time for the 25th anniversary of C-SPAN's Bus program. Our visit to Hawaii will be the 39th capital on the tour.

CLUB CHATTER:

ALOHA all current and interested PAAC members!
