Hey Everyone! Today's dress up day is Childhood & Brain Cancer Awareness day so dress day is grey & gold. There is capture the kryptonite (flag) relays at the gym during lunch. Tomorrow is Class Colors Day and Lipsync at the gym after period 6. The seniors are black, Juniors are maroon, Sophomores are purple, and the Freshmen are dark blue

Any sophomores wishing to take the PSAT, or Preliminary SAT exam, please see Mr. Reiss for an application. The exam will be given on October 24th here at Lahainaluna. Enrollment is limited, and will be determined by first-come, first-served.

Attention Freshmen! There is alma mater practice during Po'okela today so please report to the cafeteria straight after period 7 and sing your hearts out! Great job at Dance Fever! Let's keep that positive vibes flowing!

KUPU Presentation: If you are interested in attending, it will be held at the Samuel M. Kamakau library this Thursday, during Period 7

Please let Mr. Ideoka know if you want to bring your class or send individual students to the presentation. For individual students, he will only accept them into the library with a green student pass signed by a teacher.

Teachers-please let Mr. Ideoka know if you are bringing your classes to the presentation. If he get too many classes, he will have to send some back, so you must let him know first.
