DAILY BULLETIN BROADCASTED LIVE DAILY ON CHANNEL 46. If no TV access, please read this Daily Bulletin to your class. Mahalo!

Today marks the start of 2nd quarter and the first day of Homecoming week. Monday is Decades Day and the game is Travel Trivia at the cafeteria during lunch. Cheer on your class! Who will reign supreme? Tomorrow is Lip-sync and the dress is your class shirt. Just a reminder that if you are not participating in the dress days, you need to be wearing your uniform.

Homecoming week! Hey Lahainaluna! This week is spirit dress up week so don't forget to dress up! Monday is Decades day and Treasure Hunt. Tuesday represent your class by wearing your class shirts and watch our lunas lip-sync! Wednesday is Tacky Tourist Day and our Amazing Race. Thursday come to school dress like your city! And enjoy our Dance Fever. Lastly, all girls wear white and boys wear red for our alma mater competition on Friday! Go lunas!

Juniors and Freshman can pick up class shirts that were ordered during recess and lunch today in SAC office.

Seniors: Your first 10 mentor hours logs are due for your senior project. Please turn in outstanding logs to your Po'okela teacher or to Mr. Webber in 1-5A. Your second 10 hours of logged time are due on November 6. Use the remainder of this month to visit your mentor ship program and log your required hours. This does not apply to students who are doing a PBA as a senior project. A reminder that senior projects will be finalized and presented to the community on December 6th.

October is National Bullying Prevention Month. I hope that we as a school, at Lahainaluna will participate in the prevention of bullying and being a part of the change. (IUWEChange Lahaina) is led by senior, Kailee Badua as part of my senior project PBA. Today's challenge is: Sit next to someone in the lunch room or bus who sits alone.

Are you fluent in at least one other language than English? The Hawai'i State Board of Education recognizes that speaking more than just one language is a valuable skill, worthy of respect. The Seal of Biliteracy was established to recognize those graduating seniors who speak BOTH of the state's official languages OR one of the two languages as well as another language. The Seal of Biliteracy is awarded upon graduation. In order to receive the Seal of Biliteracy applicants must:

1. Be a graduating senior enrolled in a Hawai'i public or charter school;
2. Demonstrate a minimum overall 3.0 Grade Point Average (GPA) upon graduation;
3. Successfully complete courses required for English Language Arts or Hawaiian Language Arts for a high school graduation diploma with a minimum 3.0 GPA upon graduation; and
4. a. Attain a score of "5" or above for one or more of the world language assessments (the list is available on the application) OR
b. Attain a rating of intermediate-mid level on the HIDOE-approved 'Olelo Hawai'i assessment, OR the American Sign Language Proficiency Interview (ASLPI) OR other HIDOE-approved ASL assessment

Applications for Class of 2020 applicants shall be submitted online at bit.ly/HISeal2020App

Congratulations to Kilo Namahoe and Mr. Ryan Nakagawa as they are the winners of the inaugural "show me your sounds contest" held Friday, October 4, 2019 during lunch period. Kilo was the student winner while Mr. Nakagawa was the teacher winner! Congratulation again to both and to all who participated.

Youth 'ukulele players from kindergarten through high school are invited to participate in the 23rd year of the Hula Grill Ukulele Contest. The contest gives Hawaii's keiki the chance to perform on stage in front of a live audience. The contest kicks off at Saturday, October 19th 10 am, but there is a complimentary workshop prior at 9:15am. The workshop will be lead by KoAloha Ukulele and is a great way to get the group warmed up and playing together.

Keiki can compete in the solo division, group division, or both. We announce first, second and third place for all four categories. The contest is sponsored by KoAloha, so every contestant has the chance to win a brand new ukulele. For those who don't go home with the ultimate prize, there are plenty of other great prizes that are sure to please. A simple breakfast and lunch will be provided for the contestants, and family members or other supporters are welcome to order from our lunch menu any time after 10:45am.

Rules & Qualifications:

All contestants will be judged on brief introduction, ukulele performances (strumming, rhythm and picking), stage presence, off stage attitude, originality and keeping within the 4-minute time limit. No electrical effect pedals/distortion boxes will be allowed. Aloha Attire is required.

Solo Divisions:

Division 1 | K – 4th grade
Division 2 | 5th – 8th grade
Division 3 | 9th – 12th grade

Group Division:

Maximum number of six members. K-12 Grade

You must have at least one ukulele player in groups of 2-3 and two ukulele players in groups of 4-6. Your group may be intermixed in grade levels. Solo Division contestants may also enter in the Group Division.

For an application or more information, please go to <https://www.hulagrillkaanapali.com/ukulelecontest/> or contact Ikaika Vasquez, community relations coordinator at ikaika@hulagrill.com
