FFA News: On Oct. 15-16th, 3 Lahainaluna FFA students attended the 2019 Hawaii Agriculture Conference held at the Hawaii Convention Center on Oahu. Kahealani Garcia, Taimane Cajudoy, and Sabrina Holcom were the 3 students who represented the Lahainaluna FFA (formerly the Future Farmers of America- National Student Leadership Organization) Chapter at the conference, along with their FFA Advisor, Mr. Keith Ideoka.

The Agriculture Leadership Foundation of Hawaii and Hawaii's Agriculture Industry sponsored all of the travel and conference costs for our students and their advisors. 8 other schools with active FFA programs also participated in the conference.

Sabrina Holcom, 2019-2020 Hawaii State Reporter was one of 5 State FFA Officers who represented our next generation of Agriculture leaders at the conference. The students had an active role in the conference. They had to meet and work together to come up with their own goals for the future of Hawaii's Agriculture, food security, Ag workforce development, sustainability, and protecting Hawaii's environment. All of which were shared with the current leaders from our government and private sector in Hawaii's Agriculture industry. Some of our FFA students were even part of panel discussions or were presenters for their own sessions at the conference.

Our students were treated to an early evening Pa'ina and networking event with appetizers prepared by many of Hawaii's premier chefs on the last night of the conference. To our surprise, our own Uncle George Kahumoku from Kahakuloa was the featured musician that night. Being a former Art teacher at Lahainaluna, he called our 3 Lahainaluna FFA members up to the stage to sing the Lahainaluna's Alma Mater with him as he accompanied them with his guitar. The audience loved it and our students did a great job representing their school well.

Halloween Dress Up Contest is on Thursday, October 31st during lunch at the cafeteria. Categories are Scary, Funny, and Creative. All school dress codes will be applied. If you are not going to dress up, you must be in your school uniform.

October is National Bullying Prevention Month. Lahainaluna will participate in the prevention of bullying and being a part of the change. (IUWEChange Lahaina) is led by senior, Kailee Badua as part of her senior project PBA. Save the date: On Wednesday, November 6th, Kailee will do her presentation at the library during lunch and there will be a rally alongside the football locker room afterschool that day. Today's challenge is: Remember that just because it is funny doesn't mean it doesn't hurt as much.

Are you fluent in at least one other language than English? The Hawaii State Board of Education recognizes that speaking more than just one language is a valuable skill, worthy of respect. The Seal of Biliteracy was established to recognize those graduating seniors who speak BOTH of the state's official languages OR one of the two languages as well as another language. The Seal of Biliteracy is awarded upon graduation. In order to receive the Seal of Biliteracy applicants must:

1. Be a graduating senior enrolled in a Hawaii's public or charter school;
2. Demonstrate a minimum overall 3.0 Grade Point Average (GPA) upon graduation;
3. Successfully complete courses required for English Language Arts or Hawaiian Language Arts for a high school graduation diploma with a minimum 3.0 GPA upon graduation; and
4. a. Attain a score of "5" or above for one or more of the world language assessments (the list is available on the application)
OR
b. Attain a rating of intermediate-mid level on the HIDOE-approved 'Olelo Hawaii'i assessment, OR the American Sign Language Proficiency Interview (ASLPI) OR other HIDOE-approved ASL assessment
