There are so many awesome reasons to join best buddies this year! Our Zoom calls, which happen on Wednesdays and Tuesdays, include members from clubs all across the state. That means that we can actually meet new people more than we did before the pandemic! I have made lots of new friends these past few months from just video chatting with everyone a couple of times a week. We do many fun activities like scavenger hunts, kahoot, healthy cooking, and getting to know each other. There is so much importance to social inclusion in our everyday lives, yet many people do not see it because they have it in abundance. Others, not so much. Best Buddies is an awesome club to be a part of, because it gives all its members that abundance of inclusion.
