To all, we need your help! If you are coming to school, please complete a wellness check each morning before coming up to school. If you have any of the symptoms of illness or if you checked any boxes in the COVID-19 exposure section, do not come to school and report it by calling our main office at (808) 662-4000 or go to our contact section of the school website. For a copy of the wellness check form, please check it at our school website or Facebook page. Mahalo!

To all students, please complete the Panorama Survey before Friday, December 4th. The URL is <http://surveys.panoramaed.com/hidoe>. Students will use their 10-digit student ID as the access code, also keep in mind that some students have been asked to survey 2 teachers so please complete both. Mahalo!

Japanese Club: If you are interested in participating in our origami project, contact sensei Esselburn via email or Google Classroom. We will be donating a 1000 paper cranes to our sister school in Japan for delivery to a temple or Hiroshima's Peace Memorial Park. Pick up of materials will be in K-102 on Thursday between 12:00 - 2:00 pm. You must notify sensei Esselburn prior to coming to campus. Also, if you have not picked up your club t-shirt you may also come up that day too. T-shirts are $10.

Lahainaluna High School is proud to present its 3rd annual student showcase virtually. We will be highlighting all of the innovating learning that the students have engaged in this virtual school year. To register to the event, please check our school website. Mahalo!

Hey Everyone! The Lahainaluna High School Online Course registration is officially starting from Monday December 7, 2020 to Friday, December 18, 2020 so start planning out your classes now. The information can be accessed through our school website at www.lahainalunahs.org. Also, check your academic plan through infinite campus to make sure you got your credit lined up for graduation. We strongly urge to make an appointment with your counselors. The link to make an appointment with your counselors will be available on or after December 1st so be ready. Mahalo!

If you like working outdoors, growing plants, raising farm animals & fish, caring for our environment, learning and practicing the Hawaiian Culture, going on field trips, and traveling for school,

The Lahainaluna Agriculture Learning Center and Natural Resources Career Pathway has one or more courses that will fit your interests and can help lead you into a rewarding career of managing and protecting our natural resources.

These are the courses that you can sign up for next year:

For first-year students, we recommend that you sign-up for the: Natural Resources Pathway Core class.

You can also take the: Plant Systems 1, Animal Systems 1, or Natural Resources Production 1 class.

For second to fourth-year students, you can sign-up for a level 2 Plant Systems, Animal Systems, or Natural Resources Production class, or you can take an Agribusiness, Directed Studies, or Capstone class.

Mr., Keith Ideoka and Kumu Pomaika'i Krueger will be happy to have you as your teachers. Come join our students like Kahea, Sonya and many others to be a part of our Lahainaluna Ag & FFA Ohana! Just sign-up! Don't forget to check our video on the lunabroadcast1831 YouTube channel, School's Facebook, and our school website. I mua Lahainaluna!

This week's theme is In the Dark. Take a photo of you or you and a friend in the dark! Be creative, take pictures, and have fun! Upload photos at www.hjeshare.com. The code is Lunas with a capital L. I mua Lahainaluna!
