Please share with family and friends! Help support Papa Hula o Lahainaluna at this year's Kalikimaka Craft Fair on Saturday December 6th from 10am to 2pm on Boarder's Field. General parking will be at student parking above the stadium and kupuna/ADA parking will be at Admin building/bus stop. Funds raised will go towards our Huak'ai Hele 2026. We will have food and specialty drink trucks, various non-food vendors, live entertainment, giveaways, silent auction, covered sitting area, LHS clubs, Da Luna Store, etc. Bring cash for LHS clubs and Da Luna Store. Just a friendly reminder that this is a drug-free, smoke-free, and alcohol-free event. No outside food and drinks allowed. Mahalo nui loa for all your aloha!!

Class of 2028: On Wednesday November 19th, we will be holding the Sophomore grade level assembly during Po'okela. You need to go to Po'okela first then as a class going to the gym. Mahalo!

Stop by P16 or Hale Ola Pono Clinic (behind girls locker rooms) if Shimo's not there with your registration form if you're interested in signing up for Foundations of Health Services. All grade levels qualify. Join the family to acquire certifications, college credits, and leadership skills
