This past Friday, marked a special day for Lahainaluna as we celebrated our 194th anniversary. We are so proud to be a part of the nearly two centuries of education and tradition that have made Lahainaluna a unique and special school.

To commemorate this milestone, the Archive Committee has provided a complimentary pen for every student. This pen is a reminder that it is us, the students, faculty, and staff, who will continue our great legacy in the years to come. You will receive your pen in Po'okela today.
