Teacher Appreciation Day is a crucial time to recognize educators who dedicate their lives to sparking curiosity and shaping character. Teachers are essential multi-taskers—mentors, cheerleaders, and navigators—who build student confidence and go beyond lessons. Their tireless impact, from late-night grading to classroom "aha!" moments, extends far past the school gates. Today, we thank the educators who see and realize every student's potential. A simple note or gesture of kindness ensures they know their value.

Congratulations Juniors, most of you are all done with SBA testing. There are only 64 students that still have to finish at least one test left. For those students testing will be done in Ms. Scheib's room J205 and Mr. Gilligan's room G208 today for those not completely done. Please check your email and/or with your pookela teacher to see if you need to go to one of those rooms to finish. If you are all done go to your regular Pookela class and finish your PTP portfolios. Mahalo

Good luck to Emi McMillen as she will be competing in the 2nd round of the HHSAA girls state golf tournament TODAY at Kaneohe Klipper Golf Course in Oahu. Yesterday, she was in 43rd place with a 17 over par. I Mua Lahainaluna!

The softball team's run for the HHSAA title has unfortunately concluded with a 15-2 loss to Mililani High School in five innings. Despite the loss, Casey Ross and Kaylee Neizman each contributed an RBI, and Pollyanna Melekiola and Rachel Pagdilao both recorded two hits. The team will compete against Kapolei High School today at 3 p.m. at McKinley High School Softball field. I Mua Lahainaluna!
